

Bios For BC Golf Nominated Directors – 2025

Kathryn Teneese

Kathryn Teneese is a citizen of the Ktunaxa Nation and currently serves as the Nation Chair. She has dedicated much of her life to public service, holding various leadership roles within the Ktunaxa Nation and at the provincial level with several Indigenous organizations. While she has spent most of her life in the Ktunaxa homeland in southeastern BC, she also lived in the Lower Mainland for 17 years.

Kathryn was introduced to golf while living in the Lower Mainland and became a member of the Cranbrook Golf Club upon returning to Cranbrook in 1999. She has been actively involved at the club, zone, and provincial levels, both as a player and volunteer. Currently, she serves on the Golf Industry Advisory Council and the Board of the BC Indigenous Golf Association.

She continues to be an enthusiastic member of the Cranbrook Golf Club and remains deeply engaged in the sport.

Nonie Marler

Nonie Marler has over 20 years of experience in business and real estate, having worked in the Vancouver, Toronto, and London (UK) markets. She currently serves as an Associate Vice President at Colliers' Vancouver office, specializing in investment sales and leasing across British Columbia.

An avid tournament golfer, Nonie competes at a high level across North America. She is a two-time BC Women's Mid-Amateur Champion (2020, 2022) and a 2020 Ontario Women's Mid-

Amateur Champion. She has also qualified for and competed in the U.S. Women's Amateur and U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur championships. Additionally, she is a two-time Lamey Cup team member for Team BC and a multiple-time winner on the Vancouver Golf Tour.

Her passion for the game extends beyond competition, and she remains an active participant in the golf community and is a member of Marine Drive Golf Club.

Shauna Wilton

An avid recreational golfer, Shauna is currently the VP of Event Operations at the PNE. In her 20+ year career she has been a trusted advisor and leader in both the public and private sectors including 4 years as the Deputy General Manager of the Vancouver Park Board. She has volunteer and board experience at the local and national level and is a life-long participant in sport.
