

Ordinary Business

The following section of the British Columbia Golf Bylaws set out the requirements with respect to ordinary business at a general meeting

4.1 Annual General Meeting Meetings of Members shall include Annual Meetings and Special Meetings. At an Annual Meeting, the following business is ordinary business:

- adoption of rules of order;
- consideration of any financial statements of the Association presented to the meeting;
- consideration of the reports, if any, of the Directors or auditor;
- election or appointment of Directors;
- appointment of an auditor, if any;
- business arising out of a report of the Directors not requiring the passing of a special resolution
